

LITTLE RESPECT
SHOWN TO GREELEY

His $20,000 Bronze Statue Carted to Farm and Thrown Behind Barn.

TOWN DEEPLY STIRRED

Thousands of School Children
Donated Their Mites Toward Memorial.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

White Plains, N. Y., December 28.—The little village of Chappaqua, ten miles north of here, is worked up over the fact that the $20,000 bronze statue of Horace Greeley, which was to have been erected in the village park last summer, has been carted to the farm of John J. Bristol, near the station in that village, and thrown behind a barn, where it has lain for several months.

The money for the bronze figure, which stands more than fifteen feet high, was raised by popular subscription. One of the contributors was Andrew Carnegie, who gave $1,000, while thousands of school children throughout the country gave their mites toward the fund.

It was planned to erect the statue last August and the dedicatory address was to have been delivered by President Taft. Another speaker was to have been Governor Dix.

The little park in which the monument is to be erected some time in the future is near the railroad station. The pedestal for the figure has been completed more than a year.

Several citizens of Chappaqua have offered to haul the statue to the site in the park and erect it at their own expense, but their offers have been refused.

Mr. Greeley resided at Chappaqua at the time he was a candidate for President, and there are now nine men in the small village who voted for him.

Sure Story Is Incorrect.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) New York, December 28.—Mrs. Gabrielle Clendenen, Horace Greeley's daughter, who lives in Westchester, said over the telephone that she was quite sure the story from White Plains was incorrect, and that no disrespect had been shown her father through lack of regard for the statue. Then Mrs. Clendenen explained why the statue had not been erected last summer when plans had been made for its unveiling.

The committee of Chappaqua citizens, of whom Mr. Bristol was the leading spirit, which had charge of collecting funds for the statue that it might be placed in the park opposite Greeley's Chappaqua home, could not subscribe enough money to lay what it thought would be a proper foundation. Consequently, the placing of the monument was put off until next June, when it will have a pedestal building. It was the statue probably has been placed in the meantime, said Mrs. Clendenen, on Mr. Bristol's estate, and is in some place where it is being well looked after. We have to thank Andrew Carnegie for having subscribed $1,000 with which to erect a proper foundation.

CONVICT SYSTEM
MAY BE CHANGED

Kitchin Will Recommend That
Penitentiary Building Be Abandoned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Raleigh, N. C., December 28.—The incoming Legislature is certain to have all sorts of recommendations and tenders of advice as to what changes to make in the State convict system. Most of them will probably attach to the recommendations of Governor Kitchin. It is learned that the latter will recommend that the penitentiary building be abandoned entirely, and that the seat of convict control be removed to the State farm in Halifax County. He thinks the penitentiary building here could be turned over to the State hospital for the insane or other State institution. Governor Kitchin will also suggest that

Money in East Horses.

It is estimated that prices aggregating $1,000,000 were distributed this week among the owners of 1,000 trotting and pacing horses performing at 1,000 meetings at 1,000 different tracks. That is going up.

Sale of
FURS

Our Entire Stock
of Fur Coats,
Scarfs, Muffs, Etc.
at Deeply Sacrificed Prices.

We are offering our entire stock of Manufactured Furs at a 20 per cent reduction. This is a one-time sale. The original price ticket remains on every piece of fur.

When you consider the Haase Furs are of the highest standard of quality and style, you will appreciate what it means to be able to buy such superior grade of Furs at a reduction of 20 per cent. Immediate selections are advised.

Chas. Haase & Sons,
Established 1857
119 West Broad Street.

GLOVES

We've spread for your selection the best Gloves made. We handle only Gloves with a good reputation behind them.

TOWN DEEPLY STIRRED

Thousands of School Children
Donated Their Mites Toward Memorial.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

White Plains, N. Y., December 28.—The little village of Chappaqua, ten miles north of here, is worked up over the fact that the $20,000 bronze statue of Horace Greeley, which was to have been erected in the village park last summer, has been carted to the farm of John J. Bristol, near the station in that village, and thrown behind a barn, where it has lain for several months.

The money for the bronze figure, which stands more than fifteen feet high, was raised by popular subscription. One of the contributors was Andrew Carnegie, who gave $1,000, while thousands of school children throughout the country gave their mites toward the fund.

It was planned to erect the statue last August and the dedicatory address was to have been delivered by President Taft. Another speaker was to have been Governor Dix.

The little park in which the monument is to be erected some time in the future is near the railroad station. The pedestal for the figure has been completed more than a year.

Several citizens of Chappaqua have offered to haul the statue to the site in the park and erect it at their own expense, but their offers have been refused.

Mr. Greeley resided at Chappaqua at the time he was a candidate for President, and there are now nine men in the small village who voted for him.

Sure Story Is Incorrect.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) New York, December 28.—Mrs. Gabrielle Clendenen, Horace Greeley's daughter, who lives in Westchester, said over the telephone that she was quite sure the story from White Plains was incorrect, and that no disrespect had been shown her father through lack of regard for the statue. Then Mrs. Clendenen explained why the statue had not been erected last summer when plans had been made for its unveiling.

The committee of Chappaqua citizens, of whom Mr. Bristol was the leading spirit, which had charge of collecting funds for the statue that it might be placed in the park opposite Greeley's Chappaqua home, could not subscribe enough money to lay what it thought would be a proper foundation. Consequently, the placing of the monument was put off until next June, when it will have a pedestal building. It was the statue probably has been placed in the meantime, said Mrs. Clendenen, on Mr. Bristol's estate, and is in some place where it is being well looked after. We have to thank Andrew Carnegie for having subscribed $1,000 with which to erect a proper foundation.

CONVICT SYSTEM
MAY BE CHANGED

Kitchin Will Recommend That
Penitentiary Building Be Abandoned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Raleigh, N. C., December 28.—The incoming Legislature is certain to have all sorts of recommendations and tenders of advice as to what changes to make in the State convict system. Most of them will probably attach to the recommendations of Governor Kitchin. It is learned that the latter will recommend that the penitentiary building be abandoned entirely, and that the seat of convict control be removed to the State farm in Halifax County. He thinks the penitentiary building here could be turned over to the State hospital for the insane or other State institution. Governor Kitchin will also suggest that

Money in East Horses.

It is estimated that prices aggregating $1,000,000 were distributed this week among the owners of 1,000 trotting and pacing horses performing at 1,000 meetings at 1,000 different tracks. That is going up.

Sale of
FURS

Our Entire Stock
of Fur Coats,
Scarfs, Muffs, Etc.
at Deeply Sacrificed Prices.

We are offering our entire stock of Manufactured Furs at a 20 per cent reduction. This is a one-time sale. The original price ticket remains on every piece of fur.

When you consider the Haase Furs are of the highest standard of quality and style, you will appreciate what it means to be able to buy such superior grade of Furs at a reduction of 20 per cent. Immediate selections are advised.

Chas. Haase & Sons,
Established 1857
119 West Broad Street.

SUFFRAGETTES AT END OF THEIR HIKE

They Reach Albany With Their Message to Governor-Elect Sulzer.

TOWN DEEPLY STIRRED

Thousands of School Children
Donated Their Mites Toward Memorial.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Albany, N. Y., December 28.—General Roselle Jones, commander-in-chief of the suffragette army, which has been advancing steadily upon Albany since December 19, called the roll and mustered out this afternoon the bedraggled remnant of the valiant band, comprising "Colonel" Jim Craft, Lavina Dock, Sibyl Wilbur and Mrs. Meredith H. Stiles, which blazed the trail of suffrage along the Hudson, bearing a message to Governor-Elect Sulzer.

The women reached Albany at 4:16 o'clock, General Jones in the lead of the four faithful women, who covered every foot of ground from New York to the capital city. In the wake of the marchers came a delegation from the Albany Equal Suffrage Club, headed by Mrs. Joseph Gavit. The "war correspondents" trailed behind, tired and sickened after the last lap of sixteen miles from Pine Bush, over which the army made a forced march.

"We have left a trail of thought and suggestions behind us," said General Jones here to-night, "that will lead eventually to votes for women in the State of New York. The country districts must help us to win this amendment for woman suffrage, which I believe Governor Sulzer and the Legislature will approve. This march is the beginning of a campaign in which the suffragettes of the country districts must be paramount. The process of awakening the public mind to the need of votes for women is very slow, but we feel that this pilgrimage has brought the matter before the public in a manner that would have been possible in no other way."

"I wish that every man would make a New Year's resolution to consider votes for women," said General Jones. "I know that Governor-Elect Sulzer's resolution will favor woman suffrage. In a speech in New York not long ago he said he would be very glad to receive us in this city, but he said it would be less hurtful to us physically to come by train. I know he has been in favor of the cause for two years."

"Every one will be friends of the cause before long, and we are confident that the resolution will go through the Legislature this year, without the trick, mind you, that was played on us last year. We have made no actual plans for the trip to Washington as yet. We have merely discussed its advisability."

When asked if she expected the strenuous opposition of Assemblyman Cavillier this year, General Jones, with an air that bespoke her disgust with this "iconoclast," said: "I refuse to discuss that matter."

The suffragettes left Pine Bush at 5 o'clock this morning, arriving at East Green Bush at 12:30 P. M., where they were joined by the Albany delegation. At 2:15 the start for Albany, five miles away, was made. When the party reached Clinton Heights Mrs. Gavit turned to General Jones and pointing to the northwest, said: "General, the capital is in sight."

A burst of cheering broke from the little band. The real heroine of the march was Lavina Dock, a spirited old woman, who has been suffering throughout the trip with rheumatism and swollen feet. Gladys Coorsen, aide to "General" Jones, who created a sensation by her reported engagement to Clifford Bonner, the "war correspondent," tore down a sign posted in East Green Bush bearing the words, "Votes for Women Be Damned."

CONVICT SYSTEM
MAY BE CHANGED

Kitchin Will Recommend That
Penitentiary Building Be Abandoned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Raleigh, N. C., December 28.—The incoming Legislature is certain to have all sorts of recommendations and tenders of advice as to what changes to make in the State convict system. Most of them will probably attach to the recommendations of Governor Kitchin. It is learned that the latter will recommend that the penitentiary building be abandoned entirely, and that the seat of convict control be removed to the State farm in Halifax County. He thinks the penitentiary building here could be turned over to the State hospital for the insane or other State institution. Governor Kitchin will also suggest that

Money in East Horses.

It is estimated that prices aggregating $1,000,000 were distributed this week among the owners of 1,000 trotting and pacing horses performing at 1,000 meetings at 1,000 different tracks. That is going up.

Sale of
FURS

Our Entire Stock
of Fur Coats,
Scarfs, Muffs, Etc.
at Deeply Sacrificed Prices.

We are offering our entire stock of Manufactured Furs at a 20 per cent reduction. This is a one-time sale. The original price ticket remains on every piece of fur.

When you consider the Haase Furs are of the highest standard of quality and style, you will appreciate what it means to be able to buy such superior grade of Furs at a reduction of 20 per cent. Immediate selections are advised.

Chas. Haase & Sons,
Established 1857
119 West Broad Street.

BORDER OF HOLLY
ON HIS CHECKS

Carnegie Has Them Printed
Especially for Christmas
Donations.

TOWN DEEPLY STIRRED

Thousands of School Children
Donated Their Mites Toward Memorial.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

New York, December 28.—Andrew Carnegie's "Merry Christmas" to his friends and relatives cost him $75,000. This amount of money, perhaps a little more or a little less, was sent out in checks especially engraved with a border of holly in amounts ranging from $50 to $1,000.

Altogether, about 500 persons had their Christmas brightened and made a bit more merry by Mr. Carnegie's remembrances. He did not give any amounts larger than $1,000, and it was charitable organizations for the most part that received more than $500.

The Carnegie mansion was bombarded this afternoon and evening by reporters because H. H. Topkay, Persian Consul General, called on the laird of Skibo Friday night, when Mr. Carnegie mentioned that he had in his lifetime given about $125,000,000 to charity, education, etc., understood him to say he was going to give $25,000,000 or $125,000,000 to various charities on the first of the year.

The Persian Consul General told an evening newspaper about it, and the newspaper had Mr. Carnegie giving the money by way of a New Year's resolution.

In a statement to-day Mr. Carnegie said through his secretary that he had no intention of giving a cent of money to any one or any organization on the first of the year or in the immediate future.

"Mr. Topkay simply made a little mistake in supposing Mr. Carnegie was talking of the future, when he was talking of the past," was the way the explanation was put.

The Persian Consul General called on Mr. Carnegie to solicit his aid for the sufferers in Constantinople. Mr. Carnegie told Mr. Topkay that he was not giving any money for that purpose; then the two had a little chat.

Presents From Schwab.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) South Bethlehem, Pa., December 28.—Charles M. Schwab, at a distance of thousands of miles away, in Europe, to-day played the role of Santa Claus, somewhat delayed, to more than 200 of his superintendents at the Bethlehem Steel Works.

CONVICT SYSTEM
MAY BE CHANGED

Kitchin Will Recommend That
Penitentiary Building Be Abandoned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Raleigh, N. C., December 28.—The incoming Legislature is certain to have all sorts of recommendations and tenders of advice as to what changes to make in the State convict system. Most of them will probably attach to the recommendations of Governor Kitchin. It is learned that the latter will recommend that the penitentiary building be abandoned entirely, and that the seat of convict control be removed to the State farm in Halifax County. He thinks the penitentiary building here could be turned over to the State hospital for the insane or other State institution. Governor Kitchin will also suggest that

Money in East Horses.

It is estimated that prices aggregating $1,000,000 were distributed this week among the owners of 1,000 trotting and pacing horses performing at 1,000 meetings at 1,000 different tracks. That is going up.

Sale of
FURS

Our Entire Stock
of Fur Coats,
Scarfs, Muffs, Etc.
at Deeply Sacrificed Prices.

We are offering our entire stock of Manufactured Furs at a 20 per cent reduction. This is a one-time sale. The original price ticket remains on every piece of fur.

When you consider the Haase Furs are of the highest standard of quality and style, you will appreciate what it means to be able to buy such superior grade of Furs at a reduction of 20 per cent. Immediate selections are advised.

Chas. Haase & Sons,
Established 1857
119 West Broad Street.

Start the New Year Right--Begin Now!
Deal at Our Two Stores and Save Money

Candies, Raisins, Figs, Nuts, Dates, Celery, Oranges, Grape Fruit, Turkey, Chickens

TOWN DEEPLY STIRRED

Thousands of School Children
Donated Their Mites Toward Memorial.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

New York, December 28.—Andrew Carnegie's "Merry Christmas" to his friends and relatives cost him $75,000. This amount of money, perhaps a little more or a little less, was sent out in checks especially engraved with a border of holly in amounts ranging from $50 to $1,000.

Altogether, about 500 persons had their Christmas brightened and made a bit more merry by Mr. Carnegie's remembrances. He did not give any amounts larger than $1,000, and it was charitable organizations for the most part that received more than $500.

The Carnegie mansion was bombarded this afternoon and evening by reporters because H. H. Topkay, Persian Consul General, called on the laird of Skibo Friday night, when Mr. Carnegie mentioned that he had in his lifetime given about $125,000,000 to charity, education, etc., understood him to say he was going to give $25,000,000 or $125,000,000 to various charities on the first of the year.

The Persian Consul General told an evening newspaper about it, and the newspaper had Mr. Carnegie giving the money by way of a New Year's resolution.

In a statement to-day Mr. Carnegie said through his secretary that he had no intention of giving a cent of money to any one or any organization on the first of the year or in the immediate future.

"Mr. Topkay simply made a little mistake in supposing Mr. Carnegie was talking of the future, when he was talking of the past," was the way the explanation was put.

The Persian Consul General called on Mr. Carnegie to solicit his aid for the sufferers in Constantinople. Mr. Carnegie told Mr. Topkay that he was not giving any money for that purpose; then the two had a little chat.

Presents From Schwab.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) South Bethlehem, Pa., December 28.—Charles M. Schwab, at a distance of thousands of miles away, in Europe, to-day played the role of Santa Claus, somewhat delayed, to more than 200 of his superintendents at the Bethlehem Steel Works.

CONVICT SYSTEM
MAY BE CHANGED

Kitchin Will Recommend That
Penitentiary Building Be Abandoned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Raleigh, N. C., December 28.—The incoming Legislature is certain to have all sorts of recommendations and tenders of advice as to what changes to make in the State convict system. Most of them will probably attach to the recommendations of Governor Kitchin. It is learned that the latter will recommend that the penitentiary building be abandoned entirely, and that the seat of convict control be removed to the State farm in Halifax County. He thinks the penitentiary building here could be turned over to the State hospital for the insane or other State institution. Governor Kitchin will also suggest that

Money in East Horses.

It is estimated that prices aggregating $1,000,000 were distributed this week among the owners of 1,000 trotting and pacing horses performing at 1,000 meetings at 1,000 different tracks. That is going up.

Sale of
FURS

Our Entire Stock
of Fur Coats,
Scarfs, Muffs, Etc.
at Deeply Sacrificed Prices.

We are offering our entire stock of Manufactured Furs at a 20 per cent reduction. This is a one-time sale. The original price ticket remains on every piece of fur.

When you consider the Haase Furs are of the highest standard of quality and style, you will appreciate what it means to be able to buy such superior grade of Furs at a reduction of 20 per cent. Immediate selections are advised.

Chas. Haase & Sons,
Established 1857
119 West Broad Street.

S. ULLMAN'S SON

1820-22 East Main

2 STORES-2

506 E. Marshall

News of South Richmond COMPANY AGREES TO BE THE "GOAT"

PROPERTY IN DEMAND

Annexation Talk Is Causing Investors to Seek Southside Dirt.

Prospects of union with the city has caused a sharp flurry in Southside suburban property. While the prices have not advanced, it is thought that the demand will soon cause them to soar. Several important transactions directly traceable to the possibility of annexation have been reported during the week, and several more deals are on foot.

The property south of the James has been held back by lack of development. In the last few years Forest Hill and Woodland Heights, by proper spirit, has made remarkable progress, while Swansboro and Oak Grove have remained stationary. The latter places are retarded by the inadequate car service. The present terminus of the Hull Street line will be extended out the New Road a half mile, and will bring in valuable territory.

This district has been handicapped by poor school service. This condition is also being remedied. Two eight-room buildings are now under course of construction. One will be in Oak Grove and the other midway between Woodland Heights and Swansboro. The total cost of the new structures will be $10,000, which is covered by a bond issue. Other improvements in the building lines are being made.

Reports Loss of Property.

Miss Bessie Stratton, of Petersburg, yesterday reported at Police Headquarters the loss of a hand bag containing $13 in currency and some toilet articles. The bag was either dropped or stolen while she was a passenger on an electric car bound to South Richmond.

J. T. Jefferson, of 1415 McDonough Street, reported at the Third Station the theft of a one-horse surrey from his premises. The vehicle has black body and red wheels. Both shafts are broken.

Kirkland-Adkins.

Announcement was made yesterday of the marriage Friday night in Hampton of Miss Ruby H. Adkins, of this city, to Robert Kirkland, of the Northside. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James T. Haley, former pastor of the Stockton Street Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkland, after a Northern tour, will make their home in South Richmond.

Pearson-Rhodes.

According to information received here yesterday, Charles Pearson, of South Richmond, was married in Kenova, W. Va., on Christmas to Miss Minnie Rhodes, of that place. Mr. Pearson is a valued employee of the Union News Company, and has had charge of the Kenova office for two years. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson will arrive here Tuesday, and will make their home at 1316 Bainbridge Street.

At Southside Churches.

The Central Methodist Church, Rev. Henry C. Pfeiffer, pastor, Evauching at 11 A. M. by the pastor. At 8 P. M. Rev. T. Mc-N. Simpson, D. D., the new presiding elder, will preach. Stockton Street Baptist Church, Rev. J. W. Kinchelow, of West Virginia, will conduct both services to-day.

Santa to Visit Sunday Schools.

Santa Claus will pay his annual visit to the children of the Porter Street Presbyterian Church to-morrow night. There will be gifts for each of the little ones. Appropriate exercises have been arranged.

The Sunday School of the Cowardin Avenue Christian Church will give its Christmas entertainment to-morrow night at 8:30 o'clock. Admittance to the exercises will be by ticket only.

An attractive program has been arranged. An offering will be taken at the door.

Funeral of Mrs. Garnett.

The funeral of Mrs. Laura S. Garnett, widow of Dr. Thomas N. Garnett, who died Friday afternoon at the Retreat for the Sick, will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Meade Memorial Episcopal Church. Rev. F. Ernest Warren, rector of the church, will officiate. The interment will be in Maury Cemetery.

Will Have Christmas Music.

An attractive program of Christmas music has been arranged for the services at Bainbridge Street Baptist Church to-day. The musical arrangement is as follows:

Morning—Voluntary, choir: "Brightest and Best of the Sons of the Morning" (Schnecker), offertory, quartet: "Lift Up Your Hearts and Voices" (Mott).

Evening—Voluntary, choir: "The Earth Lay Wrapt" (Schnecker), offertory, solo: "O Holy Night" (Wilson).

The following members compose the choir: Soprano—Misses Ollie Gregory, Page, Snellings, Mrs. A. N. Pettigrew, Mrs. R. M. Mooney; alto—Miss Grace Brinker and Mrs. T. J. Jewett; tenor—William J. Morrisette; basses—W. R. Swarditz, H. L. Gregory and C. W. Payne; organist—Mrs. T. E. Burton.

To Adopt Nine Palefaces.

At a class initiation to be held to-morrow night in the wigwam of the tribe nine palefaces will be tutored and scalped by Indianola Tribe, No. 52, and scalped by the war dance will be given at 8 o'clock, and all members are ordered to be present in war paint.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. May Posey, of Pop & Petersburg Turnpike, was taken yesterday afternoon to the Johnston-Willis Sanatorium, where she will undergo a serious operation.

Miss Eloise Jackson, of Wilmington, N. C., is the guest of Miss Virginia Garnett.

Mrs. Charles P. Johnson, of Washington, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles T. Jones.

Miss Sue Riffe, of West Virginia, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. Clarence Atkins.

Miss Bessie Cheatham, of Prince George County, is spending the holidays at the home of her uncle, L. W. Cheatham, of Forest Hill.

John West Davis and bride, of Atlanta, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Davis.

Misses Daisy and Lella Moore, of South Richmond, are spending the holidays with their parents at Beach, Chesterfield County.

Drommond-Doughty.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Pungoteague, Va., December 23.—One of the prettiest marriages of the season took place Thursday night in Craddockville Methodist Church, when George E. Drommond, a very prosperous farmer of this county, and Miss Virginia S. Doughty, the daughter of G. W. Doughty, were married by Rev. L. W. Sturgis. After the marriage, the bride party was driven to the home of the bride's father, where an elegant supper was served.

Pearson-Rhodes.

Announcement was made yesterday of the marriage Friday night in Hampton of Miss Ruby H. Adkins, of this city, to Robert Kirkland, of the Northside. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James T. Haley, former pastor of the Stockton Street Baptist